

THE BRIT

AWARDS

One to watch... Midge's Cold, Cold Heart video has been nominated for a Brit Award in the category of Best Video, and quite rightly so! This mailer is just to let you know that voting will take place on Going Live on the morning of February the 1st, from 9am onwards. A 'phone number will be given out, with a different final digit for each nominated video. Keep a pen handy and get dialling! The actual award ceremony will be around the end of February on BBC1. Let's make sure that Midge is there.

Watch

Going Live

Saturday

February 1st

from 9.30 am

Keep a pen handy

the Bogie man

"I'm doing this film thing with Robbie Coltraine and I'm playing a Glasgow gangster..."

"I've only got a handful of lines in it which is quite good 'cos I'm useless!..."

Look out for a film on the BBC quite soon (possibly end of Jan / early Feb), called "the Bogie man", if you want to see Midge's film debut! It's based on a graphic novel by John Wagner, about a guy who thinks he's Humphrey Bogart. The book is available from bookshops for £5.99. Having read it, I think Midge's character may be Angus McCurdie, which should be fun!

...And if you haven't ordered your copy of EV10 yet - why not?! It should be out by the end of Feb, and includes (taped) interviews with Midge and Warren, a PURE tour report and photos, plus a limited edition official Tour t-shirt offer. Issues of EV are £1.50 (inc. p&p) or £4.50 for the next three. Order now!!

