"Testing the Water"

The video will feature Robin Simon on Guitar, and will be filmed in London's Docklands in the midst of a construction site.

Billy and Tony (aka Ultravox) are to release a new single. And at this point in time have about half an LP in the can. The first single from Ultravox is:

A : Systems of Love.

B : Vienna (Re-recorded version).

The record will be available initially on independant labels in Europe and should be released in Britain later, probably in June / July (ish) due to a more difficult contract. The release dates for Europe at any rate are:

Benelux

Scandanavia

France (April 20th.)

---

Germany (April 27th.)

---

Australasia

Japan

Hong Kong

RE: VOX Magazine May issue, "Missing In Action". Billy would like to point out that when he initially reformed Ultravox, the name change to Humania was due to legal reasons (which have now been resolved), rather than due to pressure from the fans.
